

Shipping Automotive Products by Ground, Air & Ocean

This course includes but is not limited to the following topics.

Introduction and Applicability

What are dangerous goods (hazardous materials)?
To whom do the regulations apply?
Shipper's and Operator's Responsibilities
Training requirements

Classification

Classification
The nine classes of dangerous goods (hazardous materials)
Packing Groups, Non-Regulated Automotive Products

Specification Packaging

What is Specification Packaging?
Marking of UN Specification Packaging, Standards for Types of Packaging
Testing of UN Specification Packaging
Drop Test Heights, Exception from Testing, Notification

Shipping Automotive Products using 49CFR

The Process, Definitions, Selecting a Proper Shipping Name
The Hazardous Materials Table
Special Provisions
Air Bag Inflators, Air Bag Modules and Seat-Belt Pretensioners
General Requirements for Packagings and Packages
Marking, Labeling and Documentation
Emergency Response Information
Determine if Placards are Required
Consumer Commodities, Additional Exceptions

Shipping Automotive Products using the IATA Regulations

The Process, Identification, Sample Proper Shipping Names
The List of Dangerous Goods
Numerical Cross-reference, Special Provisions, Variations
General Packing Requirements, Marking, Labeling and Documentation
Additional Exceptions

Shipping Automotive Products using the IMDG Code

The Process, Identification, Sample Proper Shipping Names
The Dangerous Goods List, The Alphabetical Cross Reference
Special Provisions, Marking, Labeling, and Documentation
Placarding, Summary of Limited Quantity Exceptions, Additional Exceptions