

Important Notice for our Canadian Customers

A person who resides/works within Canadian borders and handles, offers for transport or transports dangerous goods must be adequately trained and hold a certificate in accordance with Transport Canada (TDG Regulations), Part 6, Section 6.1. The certificate requirements differ from ICAO and IMDG and require additional information for compliance. This certificate below must accompany your DGI Training certificate and be maintained in your training records.

An employer who has reasonable grounds to believe an employee is adequately trained and will perform duties to which the training relates must issue a certificate to the employee. (6.3 (1))

The certificate below contains the information required as per TDG 6.3(1) (a) – (d). Certificate must be completed by your employer. This certificate must be made available upon demand, so we recommend making a copy and carrying it with you at all times. (TDG 6.8)

Employer Must Complete the Following Certificate

Retain 1 copy for your records, and 1 copy to remain with employee at all times.

Certificate of Training – Transport of Dangerous Goods – TDG Regulations Part 6

Employee Name: _____ Employer Name: _____

Course Title: _____ Course Completion date: _____

Employer's business address including City, Province, postal code: _____

This certificate hereby attests that the above named employee has completed the training described on this certificate as per the requirements of the Transportation of Dangerous Goods Act and Regulations.

This certificate expires on (24 months from completion date): _____

Employer's signature: _____ Employee's signature: _____

Specific training has been received in the following: (Circle all that apply)

Classification/Identification	Proper Shipping Names	Use of Schedules 1, 2 & 3	Documentation	Marks and labels
Means of containment	Emergency response plans	Reporting requirements	Safe handling and transport
Proper use of equipment for handling DG's	Transport of DG's by Air (ICAO)	Maritime transport (IMDG)

Other: _____

Training conducted by DGI Training Center and may be verified by calling 800.338.2291, Redwood City, CA, USA